CL Fornari is a great gardener and landscaper. She has all sorts of wonderful, creative ideas that are sure to please even the pickiest brides. Not only is she a great writer, photographer, and landscaper, she's a pretty awesome mother in law too!

Full disclosure. I know C.L. I've seen her garden(s), I attended a spectacularly beautiful wedding she created. I've enjoyed all her books. I've read her blog. I've heard her on the radio. I've seen her photographs. I've admired her artwork for decades. She's pretty much one of those "off the charts" creative talents who accomplishes more in a year than most mortals aspire to in a lifetime. But! Ahaaa! Can she write? Well, it just so happens she can. In fact, terrifically. It's all enough to make you think it's kind of unfair that one person can be blessed with so much talent and ability, while the rest of us putter around with fingers crossed stumbling in the dark. Ah well, some got it and some don't. She's got it. BTW. I heard she's working on fiction now. Is there no justice?

This is a fun and easy read for people who are thinking of a do it yourself garden wedding. Filled with very helpful hints from the moment of, I always wanted a out door wedding to what about mother nature, to how many flowers do I need to grow. As a Florist and gardener myself, I can tell you C. L. Fonari, hits on all the gray areas and walks you through the before, during and afters of a garden wedding. If you are going through with a out door wedding or even a party you must own this book.

A beautiful book from a master gardener and designer extraordinaire. Impossible to think you can harness all C.L.'s imaginative ideas between the pages of book, but somehow she has managed to do so. A must read for every bride considering a garden wedding.
