Customer Reviews

This book was extremely informative and easy to read while covering a wide variety of topics that are invaluable for women in the over 55 category. Subjects such as life-life style advice, medical and financial information, legal issues affecting older women, etc. were presented (using many professional experts) in a lively, clear and knowledgeable manner. The style and tone of the writing was helpful, and friendly and, happily amusing and yet always reliably professional and authoritative. The book provided many valuable references which were easily accessible. I was really surprised that this type of book could cover so much and still be so readable. It's the kind of book that I (and all readers I would think) would refer to many times over.

As a woman 60+, I thought I had a good handle on what I needed to know about financial decisions, taking care of my aging skin, my aching back, my thinning hair, my expanding waist line, and of course, deciphering the Medicare supplement alphabet. Each category, and there are dozens, can be researched, downloaded and stored in files. I actually did have a few started and bought a two drawer metal cabinet from Office Depot. I was very proud as I labelled the pendaflex folders: "Social Security", "IRA", "Back Issues" and "Long Term Health Insurance". But then a friend told me about the book called "What Women Over 55+ Need To Know from Lipstick to Living Wills" by AskNelly.com. I was hooked. I gave my metal file away and have the book sitting on my coffee table now. Marjorie Apel and Faith Evans have thought of everything. Not only that, it's well researched, beautifully written and graphically pleasing. It's a treasure and the best gift you can receive or give to yourself as you turn the ripe young age of fifty-five. Enjoy.

I LOVE this book! Marjorie Apel and Faith Evans have created a wonderful set of topics to inform people like me -55+. I especially like the chapters titled Nutrition for Healthy Aging and More Bad News About Diet Supplements. With all that's in the news about food supplements and health problems of older women, I was thrilled to find a book with concise and easy to read articles on these topics. It is very helpful and information. I highly recommend this book.

It's a current, lively, informative and entertaining read about every topic under the sun that is important to us over 55ers. When we were choosing plans for Medicare and Supplemental options, it made more sense to me than any of the other literature that we read. It has validated many of the opinions that I've had about over the counter supplements and prescription drugs in general. Thanks to Faith and her Team for a valuable tool for us Boomers!

This book is filled with useful information for the older woman. It is clearly written and well organized in a wide range of topics. What a fine accomplishment by the authors to have created such a valuable resource, now available to easily and intelligently fill the information void for women of any age. Anyone, required to make decisions every day on a broad spectrum of complicated subjects, will treasure this book.

well written, easy to understand. Filled with practical information, backed by experts in their particular area which gives confidence in what's being written. Found this very helpful in looking up information in fields I'm not familiar with. A very handy reference guide

This book is filled with useful information for older women. I found the chapters on exercise and financial matters particularly informative. The book is clearly written and well organized. I could have done without the chapters on pets, but I'm sure other people will like them very much.

Pleasant and informative reading. Offers older women pointers and resources to answer the questions and concerns of women over 55 years of age, and includes a bonus bit of fun.
