Customer Reviews

I have a lot of faith in these CDs. They WORK. I'm living proof when they helped me stop smoking within a few days. But the best results I have ever seen what when I purchased the Stop Buying for a friend. My friend and I've been hanging out with for over 30 years. We met at a yard sale and since then we have been to every Thrift Shop, Resale and Consignment shop within our reach. I love bargains as well as the next person but I only purchase things I need or will use. My friend however could not leave any place without making a purchase. When she ran out of room to store her "stuff" she would donate it to a worthy cause and continue buying. When I found this CD I bought it for her. Although she is opened minded and would have listened to it I chose to blackout what it was for. I gave it to her on Wednesday and called her Friday asking her to go to an Estate Sale with me and she said, "no" and added that she needed to get rid of much of the items she has. In fact she is planning to have a sale of her own. This was two weeks ago and she accompanied me to a resale shop yesterday and did NOT buy a single item. So I had to write this review as proof these CDs work. She knows what the CD is now and said she plans to continue listening to it and is interested in buying more for other reasons. Thank you for a great product.

There's no audible speech or transcript. You cannot rip it to your hard drive, so you must use the CD every time.
