I love this. Vinnie and Ari are in a relationship but it doesn't feel whole, Ari have always felt that they needed a third to complete them so he and Vinnie have been looking. When a friend ask them to pick up "his brother" At the airport they met Race. Both believes that Race is the third that they have been looking for, but Race have been hurt so.....Thoroughly enjoyed this story.

Dorian received a call for help, and responded immediately. Race was in trouble and Dorian made sure the ticket was waiting at the airport. Race dragged his casted arm and bruised body home to Cade Creek. He's be safe there. He'd been at Julliard for ballet, until his abuser hurt him. Two of Dorian's friends Vinnie and Ari, firefighters, picked Race up at the airport. Weary, exhausted and hurting Race collapsed and slept. A week later Race brought muffins to thank the firemen for his ride to safety. Those two hunks had been looking for a third to make their life complete. Race interested them, and vice versa. They are having dinner out when the abuser shows up. We get some violence and an arrest. The threesome is melding, and later Race moves in. We get super steamy sexy times with these guys, and an entangled tale of drugs and guns, violence, a shoot out....! This is a great short story, but we don't get much in depth, but besides that, we like these men, hope that they get together, plus it is always fun to see previous characters from the series. When we first saw Dorian, he was undercover in the Motorcycle club, and his connections helped in this interesting tale. These stories are quick and entertaining. ENJOY !

I love how it all came together. From the first meeting to the last page I couldn't put the book down. Vinnie and Ari meeting Race the chemistry was there. The way they closed in to protect Race and the trust he showed in them was awesome

This was good I Liked it very much and I can't wait for more and I will be watching for it...
