With only seven days on the luxury cruise ship, things between the boys are about to get slippery. COMMANDO (Dog Tags 2) Jesse wanted to prove to his muscled, strong, and closeted Army boyfriend Brandon that there were others like him out there and he wasn't alone. Customer Reviews

The Brazen Boys are a collection of stories chock full of humor, steam, and feels you might not expect from such a short romance. Two things a story by Daryl Banner never lacks is depth and feeling. You will not regret picking up this set! Below are my original individual reviews for each story: Dorm Game: Michael horny with a capital H, and has eyes for the too-hot-to-be-true guy in class. Andrew likes to be in control and play head games, leaving Michael more frustrated than satisfied half the time, and only letting his guard down on one drunken night. Even though Michael gets into the games, he can't tell if Andrew actually cares at all, and a guy can only take so much. Dorm Game is a great quick read with an excellent balance of funny, steamy, and sweet. On the Edge: On The Edge is everything Dorm Game is times 10. It's funny and sexy and just plain hot, all mixed in with Daryl's ever-present intensity that makes you forget to take a breath sometimes. I don't know how he's going to top this one, yet I know he will. There are dozens of laugh out loud, awesome lines, but I think this one might be my favorite: "What a thing to etch into someone's tombstone: Took a dip in the pool. Drowned on cock." Owned by the Freshman: The thing I love most about these is Daryl's ability to have you cracking up while getting you all hot and bothered at the same time. Fun, witty, sexy as hell - it's all those things along with the thing that makes Daryl's romances a cut above the rest: depth. Dog Tags: Dog Tags just became my new favorite Brazen Boy. It's smokin' hot, fun, and has a few of those tender moments that hit you right where it counts. I think I'm going to go read it again.
